

What's your leadership legacy?
What current activities/ projects support your leadership legacy?
What current roles are in support of your leadership legacy?
Who is currently aligned with your leadership legacy?
What is your leadership legacy calling for? For what activities/projects, roles and work?
Who has strengths/ideas to offer?
Where are you managing, instead of leading? Where are you controlling instead of enabling others to create and lead?
What does your leadership legacy most need right now?
What are the next steps you'll take?	